In 2019, Music in the Round presents a fresh and exciting mix of exceptional performers and repertoires that span the past 300 years – from classics like Beethoven, to some of Australia’s leading female composers, Elena Kats-Chernin and Liza Lim.

This year, there’s more to enjoy, with the opportunity to tailor the day to your taste. Alternate packages are available for two of the day’s four sessions, so you can pick and choose the performances that most excite you.

Audiences will be treated to a diverse selection of artists including pianist Aura Go, chamber music group Ensemble Liaison, soprano singer Jacqueline Porter, accordion virtuoso James Crabb, young violinist Edward Walton, pianist Ian Munro and more.

Be one of the first to experience classical music in the Convent’s North Magdalen Laundry, an evocative new venue laden with history, alongside our other unique and unforgettable performance spaces.

“This concentrated chain of recitals featured gripping examples of music-making at every turn”

Clive O’Connell, The Age
